Academy Five Year Reunion

Ramada Inn
October 1, 1977

1972 — 1977

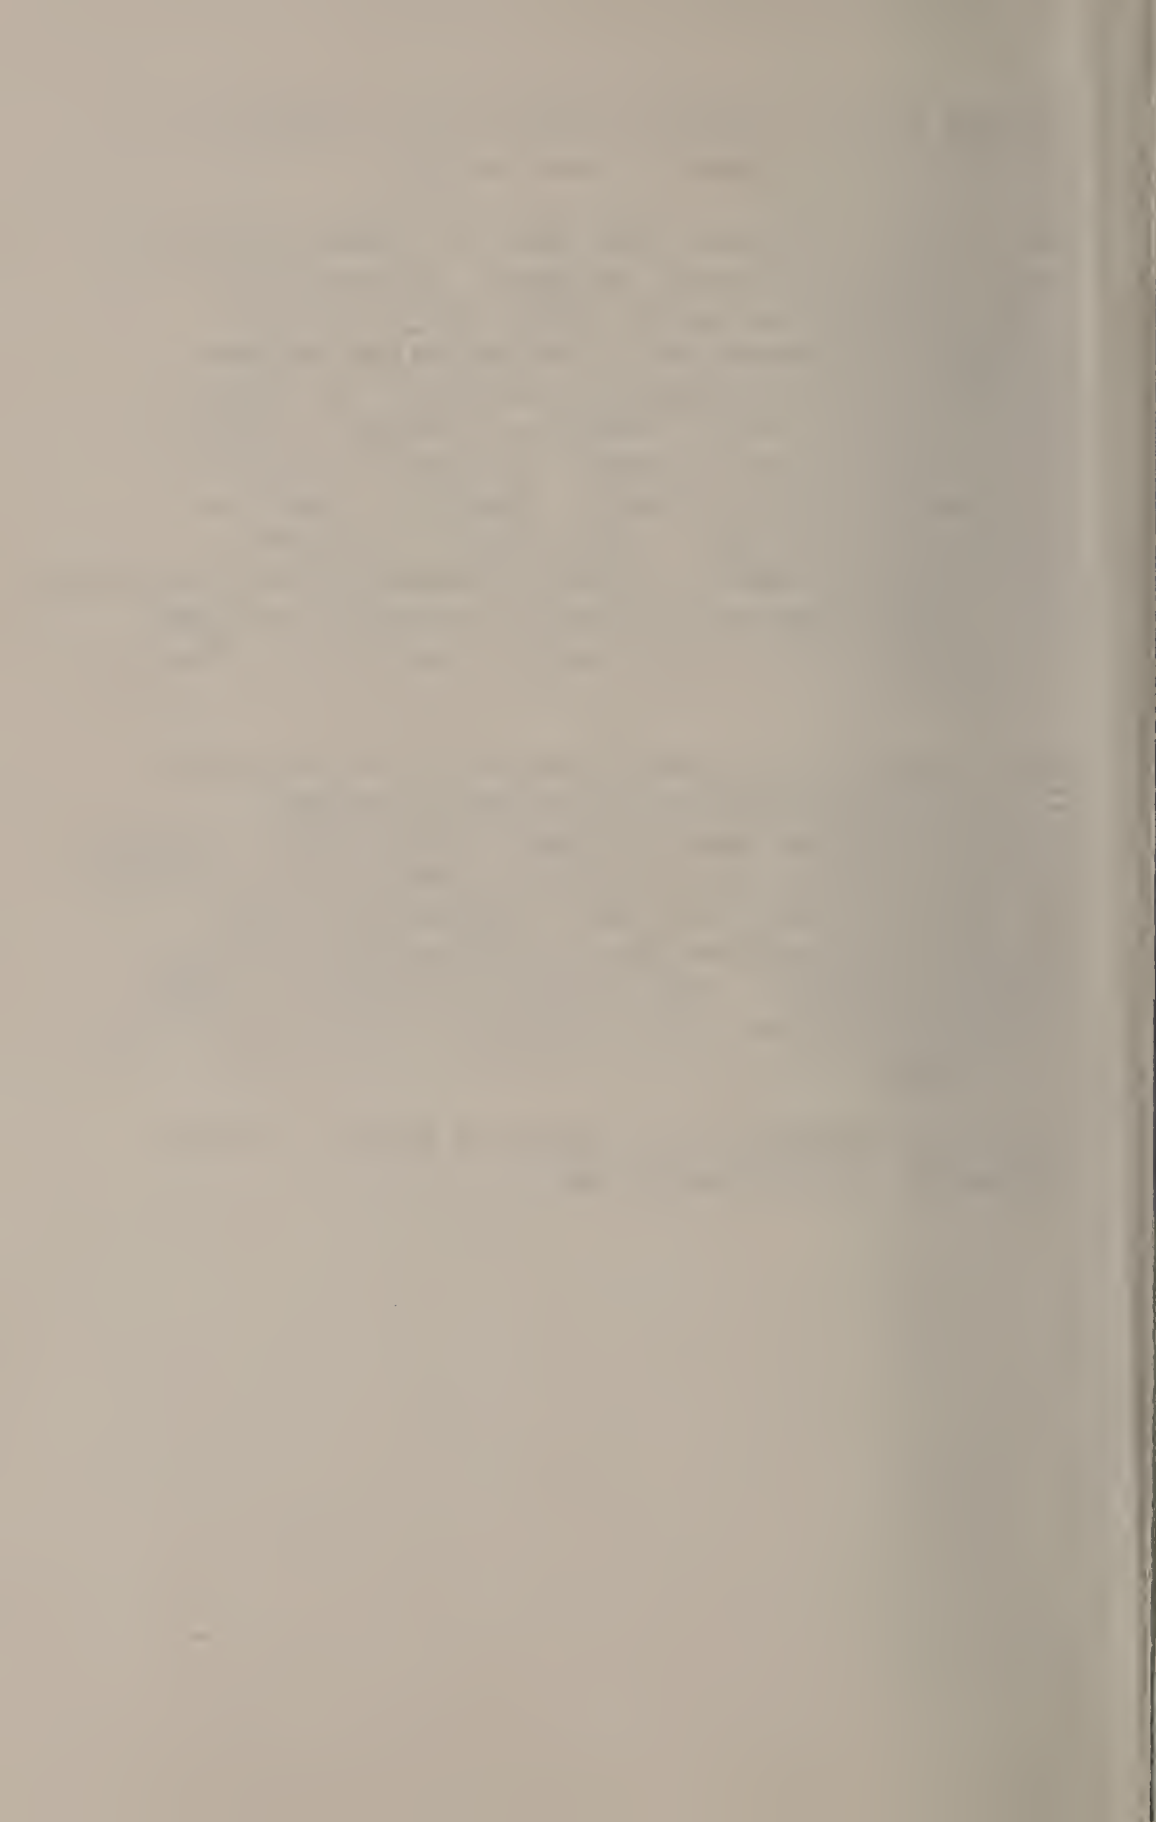

"A time for us; someday there'll be a new world, a world of shining hope for you and me."

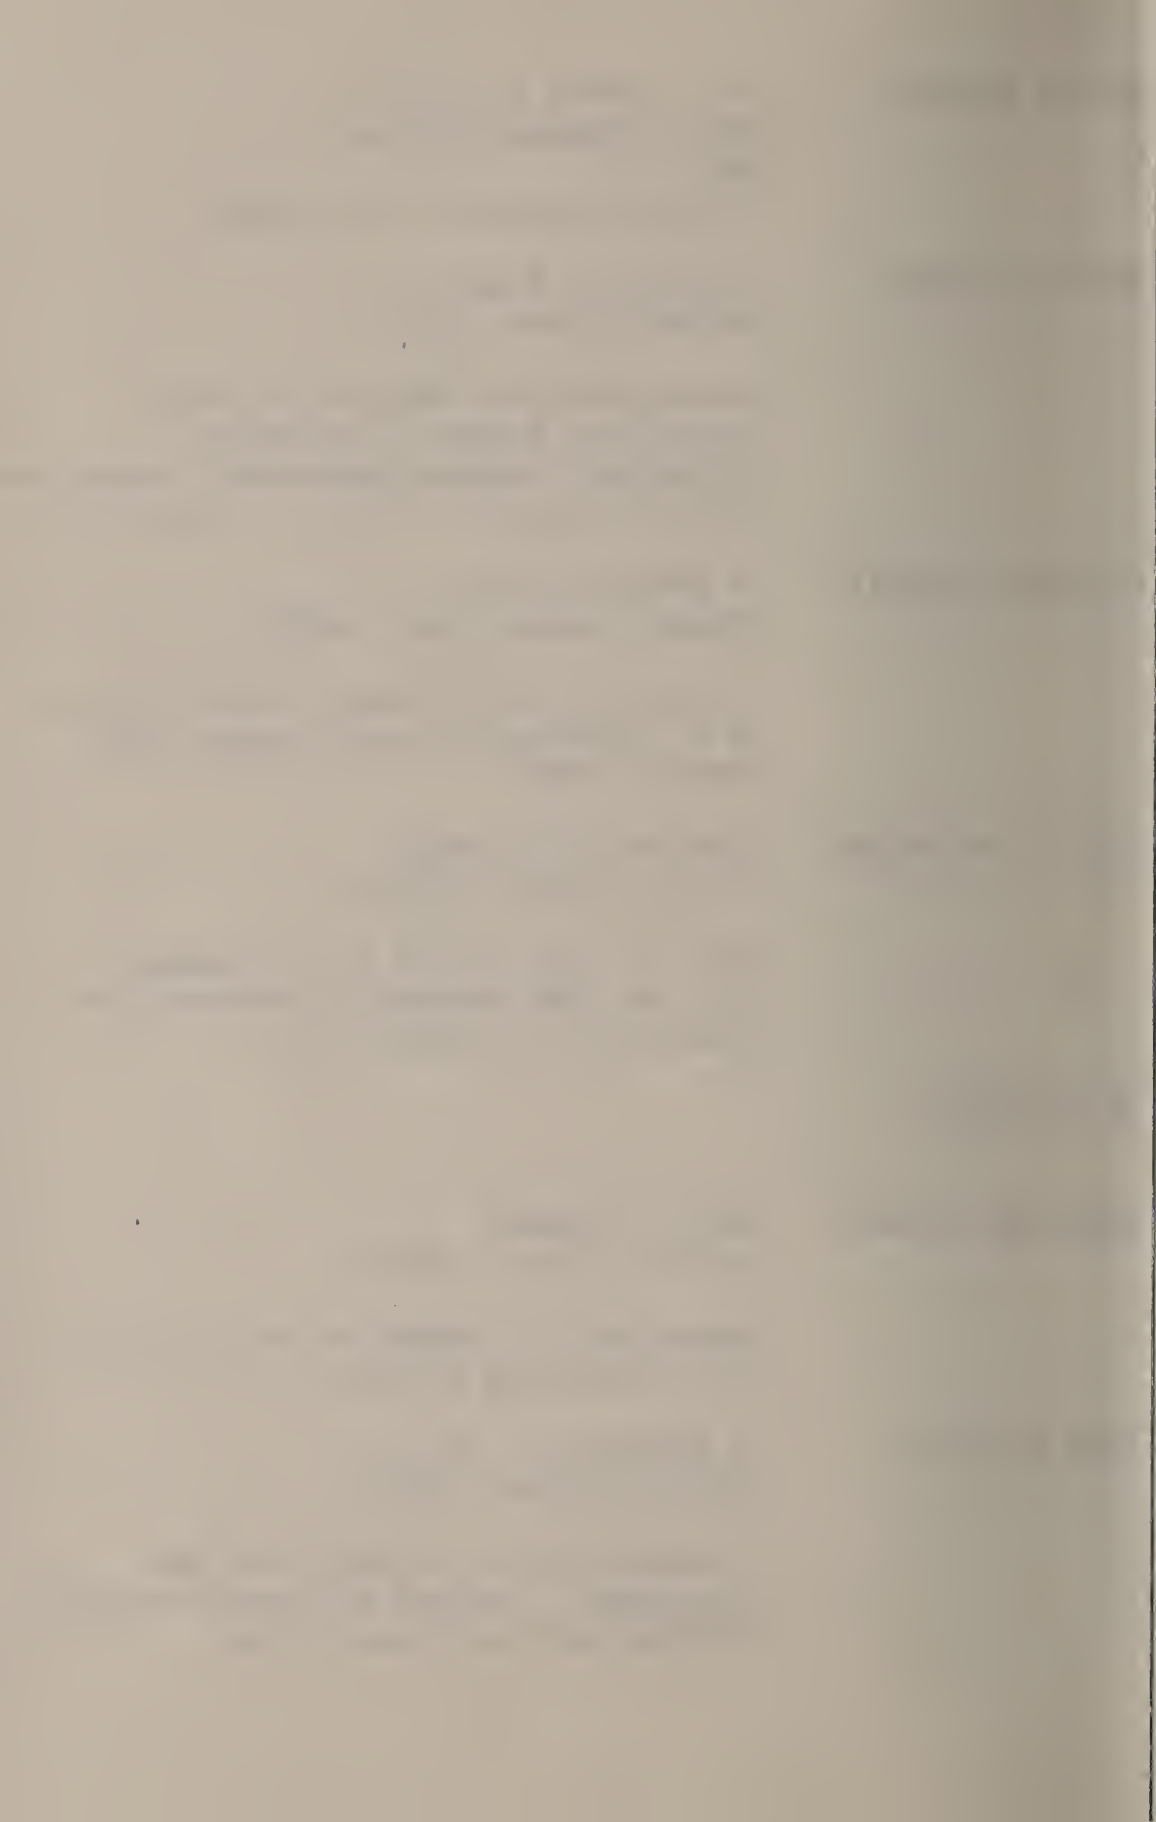

These words ended our last days as "Angelites" and began our first days as Alumnae. We were all wondering how four years could have passed so quickly. It seemed just like yesterday we were experiencing...Freshmen, Black Ties..."Bright Girl"...Latin Lines...Greece..."Cherish"...Exams...Sophomores...Kampus Kloset...Christmas...Arbor Day...Becoming Big Sisters...Juniors..."We'd do Anything"...Ring Day...Daisy Chain...Seniors..."Can't be that bad!"...Yearbook Fund-Raising Activities Washington...Senior Skip Day...Our Last Field Day, Folk Mass, Baccalaureate Mass, Class Night...Alumnae so soon?

Here we are, five years later, a little older and wiser. We are housewives, nurses, teachers, secretaries, business managers, professional students. We are a part of grocery lines...New Jersey, Colorado, California, North Carolina, Massachusetts and Connecticut...our own special Arbor days...OUR OWN SPECIAL RING DAY...field days, graduations...fund-raising activities...our children...five years passed by already?

We are all reaching our hopes and dreams. Today certainly is "A time for us."

"In the beginning God created heaven, and earth. And the earth was void and empty, and darkness was upon the face of the earth; and the spirit of God moved over the waters." Following this verse from Genesis in the Bible it is told that this dark, barren, newborn universe grew and developed into what became an inexplicable miracle even with today's supposedly superior intellect. It received light; and was divided into heaven and the water and dry land; and most important, upon it life was brought forth life: the life of the plant, of the animal, and of man.

Growth was chosen as the theme for the 1972 yearbook because of its relevance to the time we have spent at OLA—the subjects studied, the traditions followed, and the friendships formed. Each of these has contributed to our growth; we have grown as individuals as a result of the knowledge we have attained, and the Class of '72' also grew as a whole, from a number of young, scared, uprooted, questioning freshmen into a unit of girls, a little older, a little bit scared, and still constantly questioning—but with a purpose, working towards our growth as human beings taking an active part of today. OLA has provided in our high school years, a place not only where we were taught, but also, a place where one cannot help but grow.

The tree was chosen to symbolize our growth, from seedlings to the developing trees on their way to maturity.

he kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field. This indeed is the smallest of all seeds; but when it grows up it is larger than any herb and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in its branches.

Matthew 13: 31-32.

D E D I C A T I O N

In the difficult process of achieving the growth and maturity we have strived for at O.L.A., there is one person whom we all have grown to love and admire. Sr. Pontia has been a constant aid in helping us to increase our knowledge and understanding of life in one of the most valuable centers of learning, our library. We wish to dedicate this yearbook in her honor.

We also wish to extend a special thanks to Sr. Doloria for all the help she has given us not only as an instructor but as a friend.

Four years were given to us to become more and more ourselves, and each of us with her individual potential was welded to the complementary spirit of the others. Thus we became a part of OLA, the Class of 1972.

"A friend is your needs answered."

We remember... the initiation by the Class of '69... adoption by Class of '70... the first Christmas... Greece... the Ring Day play - Bright Girl... Cherish... final exams.

"A friend is your board and fireside."

We remember... trips to the Kampus Kiosket (candy in religion class)... planning and putting on the Christmas program... the big man on campus, the gym teacher, Mr. Mooney... Switzerland... Arbor Day festivity with the song "Good Morning Sunshine"... the second Class Night, with mixed emotions at the departure of our big sisters and the approaching responsibilities of upperclassmen.

"A friend is a field which we sow with love and reap with Thanksgiving."

We remember... adopting the Class of '74 with "We'd do anything for you, Sis"... the Charlie Brown Christmas... dabbling with tests, tests, and more tests; NMST, PSAT, SAT, AT... Spain... the school play, Our Hearts were Young and Gay... our own big day, Ring Day... Father Angelo celebrating the mass... that delicious breakfast served by our little sisters - their skit and song, We'll Be There... the third class night experience, receiving the daisy chain from the Class of '71, a symbol of our seniorship.

"A friend is a gate."

We remember... welcoming the class of '75 on Fresh Day, singing "Cheer up don't feel so sad, OLA. Can't be that bad"... the last Thanksgiving spent at Mass and Thanksgiving dinner with the school and faculty... watching our little sisters putting on their Christmas program... Germany and France... the yearbook fund-raising campaigns - B/W60!!! CAFE SALE!!! SENIAC RAFFLE!!! CHINESE AUCTION!!! P.C.!!!... Washington trip... May Crowning... Last Field Day... Senior Ship Day... the last Folk Mass... the Baccalaureate Mass... the LAST Class Night... Governor Meekill's speech... passing on the daisy chain and seniorship to the Class of '73... becoming ALUMNA.

Today we embrace the past with remembrance and the future with longing to continue becoming a need, a field, a fireside, a gate.

The private and personal blessings we enjoy, the blessings of immunity, safeguard, liberty, and integrity, deserve the thanksgiving of a whole life.—Jeremy Taylor

Does anybody remember the words?

She did it!!

Why do I look like this every day at 2:05?

Was this left over from the bake sale?

Okay, who did number three?

Maybe if I pretend not to see her she won't ask why we're sitting on the stairs.

The cake's very nice but where are my presents?

The pay isn't too good, but it's a living.

Don't get excited! Elaine's teeth aren't very sharp.

Please don't tell her I'm skipping class again!

Cheer up, don't feel so sad,
O.L.A. can't be that bad.

Who put up the "No Loitering" sign?

We've got a brand new pair of roller skates, but whose got the key?

ANGELITE

Because the Angelite staff knows of the student body's continuing interests in past graduating classes, we searched out the members of the class of 1972 on this, the twentieth anniversary of their graduation. A few tidbits on each that we could locate are included in this month's column.

PEOPLE, PLACES, AND THINGS

Joan DeCaro, a former Angelite-McDonaldite, has opened up DeCaro's Friendly Taxi service.

Some people have returned to certain places which carry happy memories for them. Pat Poli, for instance, has been named head elevator operator at the Manger-Hamilton Hotel in Washington, D.C.

Linda Kedzior, always a kid with a lot of sole, (soul, that is), has become the proud owner of the Morse Shoe Company. She has kept up with her Journalism technique by writing her "People, Places, and Things" column in the Morse underground newspaper.

Always wanting to become a model, we found Karen Piepul as a mannequin in Grants.

Cheryl Majeske is still driving her lemon. She is trying, without Pat Poli this time, to win another slide rule and math book by building a bridge to the moon.

Living in a Jewish commune, Denise Cartwright has kept up with her writing; she has never stopped writing poetry, and publishes a monthly edition of "Kaliedoscope", with a little prodding from Sr. Constance.

Marianne Lagel has become a professional talker. She can carry on this profession while at the same time studying blackboard-washing, in order that she may someday buy a car with a built-in ski rack. (After she gets her license, that is.)

Ann Marie has won a trophy for her fantastic performances at Carnegie Hall—she plays the piano and clarinet simultaneously.

We found a newspaper clipping on Gail Rose and her motorcycle; Hey diddle dyke, Gail and her bike have just jumped over the moon. All the world laughed and said she was daft—But she brought green cheese back on her spoon.

Marion Hannum is running for president, with Leona Konieczny as her campaign manager. For her steady job, Leona runs a bingo syndicate.

Novelist Marion Von Reeber has declared that she no longer runs her taxi service between Enfield and Windsor Locks. However, if you would like to drop out of her airplane, she'll give you a lift.

Gail Martinsen, a successful fashion designer, has just completed a new uniform for OLA.

Susan LaScala has ulcers and holds the world's record for sleepless nights. This may be due to her ownership of a yearbook publishing company.

Marianne Buckley has pursued many of the interest of her high school years. During the winter she works as a ski patrolman, and during the summer as a lifeguard. She entered the Olympics and won in both of those fields. She also paints basketballs in the snow and dreams in the sky.

Women's Lib has cracked the whip over the heads of the Globetrotters, and women now must be allowed on the team. The first to take up this challenge was Trish Cheverie. She is now in the hospital with a number of broken ribs resulting from an injury in her senior year in high school . . .

Beth Cassin has just recently won an Oscar for her performance in The Zoo, along with a number of graduates of the Class of '72.

Rachael Leger is getting married in the morning.

Sue O'Donnell is a singing social worker, and sings to her patients with patience.

There is no trace of Diane Miller, only a somehow familiar looking brown cat who seems to be attached to Nanette, and has a familiar meow . . .

Rather than hang around McDonald's the youth of today is now gracing Betty Crocker's Kitchen, headed by Linda Miller, homemaker of the year for the past twenty years.

The Death of Me Yet is the title of Denise Belanger's book on Nursing Home Techniques. It was written from her jail cell. (She figured if Eldridge Cleaver could do it, so could she.)

Lil DiMaria has become the World's No. 1 basketball star. However, she is tied up at the moment, still waiting at OLA for her father to bring the grinders.

Donna Boisvert blazes a trail across the sky as the operator of the first flying library on OLA Airlines.

Debbie Fickett dances in Hawaii, and is also seen quite often with that brown cat.

Sandy Gunther has become Sr. Magdalen's audio-visual technician and secretary in residence.

Her fanaticism for peace signs has determined Marion Klamerus' vocation—she produces peace signs by computer.

Because she was always the smallest of the Class of '72, Mary Kuliesh was wondering where she could find a job that wasn't too big for her. But Santa Claus found her to be the perfect size, and she is now his head secretary at the North Pole Manufacturing Company.

Nanette Gianantoni makes use of her talents as a singer, skier, artist, and joke-teller, in her employment under Father Angelo in his Encounter Agency.

Diane LeBel runs the weight watcher's club.

A time for us someday there'll be when chains are torn by a courage born of a love that's free. A time when dreams so long denied can flourish as we unveil the love we now must hide. A time for us, at last, to see a life worthwhile for you and me.

And with our love, through tears and thorns, we will endure as we pass surely through every storm.

A time for us someday there'll be a new world, a world of shining hope for you and me.

“Memories—sweetened through the ages, just like wine . . .”

Time will always pass. And we will all grow older—and hopefully wiser and more adept in coping with many of life’s unexpected challenges. But each friendship we have gained and each accomplishment we have earned at OLA has, in some significant way, shaped the future which each of us is anticipating.

Our dreams are just beginning to be realized—and with them, the true meaning of our relationships with each other and with the careers we have directed ourselves towards. As we leave OLA, we will take with us the most precious gift of God, the love and happiness we have shared with so many very special people.

Our daisy chain of love, friendships, dreams, tears, and good wishes is passed onto every teacher and student at the Academy.

And we will remember—long after this year is through.

The Class of '72

What else to say?
We end
in joy.
